

Parkinson's Park Species Checklist

"A Landscape Park in the Guiseley Gap"

This 11-acre historic park reflects the unique geology of the Chevin escarpment, featuring acid grassland, wetlands, and century-old woodland. Use this checklist to discover and record the diverse species that call Parkinson's Park home.

Woodland & Mature Trees

Home to 200-year-old Sycamores and the commemorative Jubilee Oak

☐ English Oak

☐ Silver Birch

☐ Sycamore

☐ Horse-chestnut

☐ Scots Pine

☐ Rowan

☐ Hazel

The Bog Garden

A unique wetland habitat fed by hillside springs

☐ Yellow Flag Iris

☐ Marsh Marigold

☐ Purple Loosestrife

☐ Ragged Robin

☐ Devil's-bit Scabious

☐ Cuckoo Flower

☐ Water Forget-Me-Not

Meadow & Wildflowers

From the "Bluebell Run" to the Wildflower Meadow

☐

Native Bluebell

☐

Wood Anemone

☐

Lesser Celandine

☐

Pignut

☐

Common Knapweed

☐

Greater Bird's-foot Trefoil

☐

Red Clover

Invertebrates & Small Mammals

Butterflies, moths, and wildlife of the meadow and woodland

☐

Orange-tip Butterfly (Spring)

☐

Ringlet (Summer)

☐

Meadow Brown (Summer)

☐

Small Skipper

☐

Six-spot Burnet Moth

☐

Common Frog

☐

Smooth Newt

☐

Pipistrelle Bat

Birds of the Guiseley Gap

A key corridor for resident hunters and migratory visitors

☐ Red Kite

☐ Buzzard

☐ Bullfinch

☐ Goldfinch

☐ Curlew

☐ Pink-footed Geese

☐ Tawny Owl

Community Orchard

Heritage Yorkshire apple varieties

☐ 'Yorkshire Greening' Apple

☐ 'Ribston Pippin' Apple

☐ 'Red Devil' Apple

Managed by the Friends of Parkinson's Park CIC

Supporting the legacy of Frank & Albert Parkinson

Visit www.parkinsonspark.org.uk for more information